VIENNA, July 5.

THE Report we had 4 Days ago, as the Poſt went off, of a compleat Victory gain'd by the Imperial Army in Hungary, over the Grand Scignior's had no other Foundation than the Arrival of an Expreſs, with the Particulars of the Action, on the 23d ult near Cornia, The Major General Count de Kinſegg, preceded by a Poſt maſter and 2 Poſt boys, blowing their Horns, arrived 2 Days ago at the Palace of la Favorita, with the agreeable News that the Imperialiſts had made themſelves Maſters of the important Poſt of Meadia; and that the Turks afterwards raiſed the Siege of Orſova: purſuant to the following Relation

'On the 24th of June in the Afternoon, the Imperial Army went and took Poſſeſſion of the Camp which the Turks had abandon'd; and then the Troops were review'd, by which it appear'd, that in the Action of the Day before they had loſt 2 Colonel, 20 Captains, a like Number of Subaltern Officers, and about 1000 Soldiers.

On the 25th the Army halted, to give the Troops time to reſt after the Fatigues which they ſuffer'd in that painful March. The 2 Regiments of Palfi and Hohenems, which ſtay'd behind at Caranſebes and Slatina, came that Day to the Camp with the expected Proviſions: And towards the Evening, the Army being drawn up in Order of Battle, Te Deum was ſung with a treble Salvo of the Artillery and ſmall Arms, by Way of Thank-giving, for the Victory gain'd over the Turks on the 23d.

On the 26th the Army was preparing for another March, but was oblig'd to defer it, by Reaſon of a great ſhower of Rain; Beſides, the Enemy appearing in a great Body upon the Hills, the Imperialiſts were willing to make a Diſcovery of their Deſigns, and therefore the Army halted that Day; only the Count de Wallis was detach'd to take Poſſeſſion of an important Eminence which was on the Left of the Camp.

On the 27th the Army march'd again in two Columns, one to the Right, the other to the Left. All the Baggage was left in the Camp with 1000 Horſes, and 2 Regiments of Huſſars to guard them. The Enemy appear'd again that Day upon ſeveral Hills, but fled as faſt as our Troops advanc'd to them. This March took up 15 Hours, by Reaſon of the continual Aſcent and Deſcent of the Hills, to the very great Fatigue of the Soldiers, who nevertheleſs ſuffer'd it with Joy. At Sunſet they began to ſet up Tents, and the Enemy were perceived to be doing the like in a Valley.

On the 28th at Break of Day, we found that the Turks who had encamped over-againſt us were gone; and ſoon after we heard that they had alſo abandon'd the ſtrong Intrenchment they had caſt up before Meadia, which was large enough to hold 20,000 Men. Upon this News M. Theyl, the Imperial Interpreter, was diſpatched with a Regiment of Dragoons, to ſummon the Garriſon of the Fort of Meadia to ſurrender; on pain, in caſe of Refuſal, of being put to the Sword. As ſoon as M. Theyl was arrived there, the Commandant of the Fort, and 4 Agas of the Janiſaries, appeared upon the Ramparts, and deſired to capitulate; which being granted, the Terms were agreed to, and approved by the Great Duke of Tuſcany.

On the 29th the Army went and incamp'd near Meadia; and next Day, juſt as it was preparing to march for the Relief of Orſova, News came that the Enemy had already raiſed the Siege of that Place. Soon after this we receiv'd the Confirmation of the News, by the Marquis de Villes, Lieutenant Colonel of the Regiment of St. Ignon, whom the Commandant of Orſova ſent to the Great Duke, to acquaint him, That the Infidels had fled with ſo much Precipitation, that they had abandon'd their Camp, with all their Tents, Proviſion, Artillery, and Ammunition, of which a Liſt will ſhortly be publiſhed. In the mean Time 'tis certain, That the Turks left behind them 30 Battering Cannon, 10 Mortars, and above 1500 Carts, &c.

The Garriſon of Meadia conſiſted of 5 Regiments of Janiſaries, amounting to 2000 Men, beſides a Regiment ſerving the Train of Artillery, which was commanded by Ibrahim, Aga of the Janiſaries; and 8 Pieces of Cannon were found in the Place, beſides Proviſions.

The following is the Act of Capitulation of MEADIA, ſigned by the Great Duke.

We Duke of Lorrain and Bar, Great Duke of Tuſcany, his Imperial Majeſty's Lieutenant General, and his General in Chief in the Kingdom of Hungary, do, by virtue of theſe Preſents, allow the Turkiſh Garriſon of Meadia, as well the Officers as the Soldiers and Slaves, free Liberty to quit this Place, with their Arms, Baggage, and Horſes; provided that among the Soldiers and Slaves there be no Deſerters, or Subjects of his Imperial Majeſty; and will cauſe them to be ſafely conducted to the neareſt Place where there any Ottoman Forces. Done at the Camp of Meadia, July 9. 1738. N S

The Commandant of Meadia likewiſe ſign'd an Act in which among others is this Clauſe, That the Great Duke, Son in Law to the Emperor, having brought a powerful Army before the Place, and he (the Commandant) not being in a Condition to defend it, he had ſurrendered it to his Royal Highneſs, in order to ſave the Muſſelmen, &c.

Next Sunday Te Deum will be ſung in the Metropolitan Church of this City, to give Thanks to God for the Advantage which the Imperial Arms have obtain'd over the Infidels in Hungary. The Col. Piccolomini, who ſo gallantly defended Meadia, when the Turks attack'd it ſome time ago, is again appointed Commandant of that Place. 'Tis believed that the Army will now march towards Widdin, in order to lay Siege to that Place during the preſent Conſternation of the Turks, who ſince the Action at Cornia are for moſt part return'd over the Danube towards Widdin. The Emperor has made ſeveral Preſents to the Officers who brought him the News of the aforeſaid Advantages. The Count de Portalis in particular, the Adjutant General, who came with the News of the Action at Cornia, has been preſented by the Emperor, with a

Ring

Ring, worth 3000 Florins, a fine Gold Watch, and a Purse full of Ducats.

Paris, July 20. The Imperial Embaſſador made Proof before his Majeſty at Compiegn, of a Horſe which ran a French League in three Minutes We hear from Tonquin in China, that four Jeſuits who arrived there in February laſt to preach the Goſpel, were put under Arreſt by Order of the Governor of that Province; and being required to trample the Crucifix under Foot on Pain of being put to Death, they choſe to kiſs the Crucifix on their Knees, and were condemned to be beheaded The Ladies appearing at Chantilly without Hoop-Petticoats, the King expreſs'd ſuch a Pleaſure in the Figure they made without them, that he order'd them to wear no more there; ſo that probably they will carry the new Mode to Verſailles, and from thence it will ſpread hither, and afterwards run thro' the whole Kingdom. The Harveſt is ſo abundant all over this Kingdom, that the Peaſants are obliged to work Night and Day to gather it in: Our Vineyards promiſe better this Year, than they ever were known to do, both as to the Beauty and Quantity of the Grapes.

LONDON, July 27.

Tueſday Advice came to the Admiralty Office, that the Dunkirk Man of War, Capt. Fox, from Jamaica, was arrived at Portſmouth, where he put a Packet on Shoar, the Contents of which is ſaid to be, that all was very quiet at preſent among the Spaniards; but they keep what Preparations they had made in a Readineſs for Action on Occaſion.

We are credibly inform'd, that the Government have taken up ſeveral Ships, in order to tranſport Timber for a Draw-Bridge and Palliſadoes for Port Mahon, with many Bombs, Pieces of Cannon, a great many thouſand Carttidges, and all other warlike Stores.

Tueſday the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, attended at a Council at Kenſington on extraordinary Affairs.

'The laſt Letters from Madrid imp[ort] hat they began
'to believe there that the Negociatio[n] ying on for an
'amicable Concluſion of the Diffe[rences] between Spain
'and Great-Britain would not ha[ve] ſired Succeſs;
'and that, in all Appearance, the [Court] reparations on 'both Sides threatened an open Rup[ture] etween the two
'Crowns.' If we can't have a Pe[ace] Honour to our Country, Security and Advantage t[o] Trade, and full Satisfaction to our plundered Mercha[nts] our ruined Captains of Ships, and our abuſed, im[prison]ed and maim'd Seamen, with a proper Attonement f[or] e Murder of our Countrymen, and the groſs Affron[t] ut upon our Sovereign, let us have a ſpeedy and vigo[rous] War; and then let us leave the Iſſue to the Juſtice [of] our Cauſe and the Sharpneſs of our Swords under the gracious Diſpoſal of Providence

On Tueſday Night laſt ſix or ſeven Expreſſes, were diſpatched from the Admiralty Office to haſten the equipping of the ſeveral Men of War and Bomb Ketches, intended to be ſent to the Mediterranean, and on other Occaſions.

Since the Arrival of an Anſwer of the Court of Spain, to the reiterated Remonſtrances of Great Britain, all our Politicians ſeem to agree that a War is unavoidable

Laſt Night a great Number of Men was preſt in the River, and put on board a Yatch, lying at the Tower for that Purpoſe.

Laſt Tueſday about 11 in the Morning a moſt dreadful Storm of Thunder, Lightning and Hail happened at Dunſtable, which put the whole Town into the utmoſt Conſternation as it ſurpaſſed any Thing which had ever been known there; a Houſe oppoſite to the Sugar Loaf was ſhatter'd to Pieces by the Lightning; which occaſion'd the Engine to be brought out, to prevent the dreadful Conſequences of Fire, which was every Moment expected; the Hail-Stones were as big as Wallnuts, which broke the Windows in many Places; but we do not hear of any Body hurt.

The ſame Day there was Hail Stones of a prodigious Bigneſs fell about Caſey near St. Albans, moſt of them as Pidgeons Eggs, ſome as big as Hens Eggs, and ſome that meaſur'd five and ſix Inches about; the Hail broke abundance of Windows about Bushy near Watford in Hertfordſhire, and kill'd ſeveral Fowls, with the Force of its Fall.

CHARLES-TOWN, Oct. 5

By Capt. Webber in 7 Weeks from Topſham, we have that before he came away, there were three more Admirals put in Commiſſion, and 86 Men of War fitting out with all Speed; that there was a very hot Preſs for the manning of them, and no Protections granted.

From Georgia we hear, that General Oglethorpe arrived the 17th of laſt Month at Frederica in a Man of War, and five Tranſports, with 600 Souls, Men, Women and Children.

As the Small-Pox is now almoſt gone through Charles-Town, the following Account thereof (taken the 30th Sept.) 'tis thought may not be unacceptable to the Publick.

Number of Whites who have had the Small-Pox the natural Way.	647	whereof have died	33
Number of Blacks who have had the Small-Pox in the natural Way:	1028	whereof have died	131
	1675		164
Number of Whites who have been inoculated	186	whereof have died	0
Number of Blacks who have been inoculated	251	whereof have died	1
